HOBART DEFEATED

Varsity Wins With Little Difficulty — Heavy Penalties the Chief Feature

Aside from the student body, only a fair-sized crowd came to Steuben Field Saturday afternoon to see the Varsity defeat Hobart in the first home game of the season. The score, 9-0, was not quite as large as had been hoped for but from a viewpoint of developing the team the game was satisfactory.

The Syracuse game the week before tested the Varsity's defense and brought to light the defects of the team in that department. On the other hand, the Varsity's work in the Hobart game last Saturday, while at times defensive, consisted mostly of offensive work. The most noticeable defect in this department was the poor interference and the failure of the ends to put out their opponents. The interference was slow in formation, and repeatedly the backs got off with the ball with no interference at all. The defense was good, especially that of the line, Hobart's gains being made mostly on long end runs.

Heavy penalties were imposed on the Varsity, on the most part for being off-side. This was due to eagerness rather than carelessness, which is a good fault. As a result of the penalties imposed, the ball was in Hamilton's territory thruout the greater part of the game, but the goal was not threatened, the Varsity never losing possession of the ball inside its thirty-yard line.

The game in detail:

At 3:30 Drummond kicked off to Olmstead on Hobart's five-yard line. Hobart being unable to gain thru Hamilton's line and having been penalized for holding, punted, but the ball went out of bounds. It came into Hamilton's possession on Hobart's 8-yard line. The Varsity was here penalized, and on the next play Drummond kicked a field goal from the 20-yard line.

Score, Hamilton 3, Hobart 0.

R. Wood kicked off to Wheeler on the 15-yard line. Hamilton tried an on-side kick, but the ball fell into Hobart's possession, and R. Wood attempted a place kick, which fell short by several yards. During the half Sidle, Knox and Harper made good runs, but penalties kept the ball in Hamilton's territory.

In the second half, D. Wood kicked off to Hamilton's 5-yard line to Sidle, who returned the ball 10 yards. Barker threw Harper for a loss, Sidle made 5 yards thru the line, and Drummond punted to the center of the field where R. Wood caught the ball and returned it 5 yards. D. Wood gained 10 yards around left end, but failing in line plunges, Hobart punted to Harper on the 15-yard line and the ball came back 5 yards. Sidle made 5 yards thru the line, Harper 3 around left end, and then Drummond punted the ball to Hobart's 40-yard line. Hamilton was penalized for being off-side; Drummond threw R. Wood for a loss and Hobart punted. Kultchar went in for Harper. Hamilton operated a forward pass and placed the ball on Hobart's 40-yard line. Hobart was penalized 15 yards for holding, and D. Wood punted to Knox in the center of the field. Kultchar gained 5 yards around left end and Hamilton kicked to Hobart on the latter's 15-yard line. R. Wood then attempted to punt, but Drummond broke thru, blocked the ball and fell on it. A series of line bucks shoved Sidle over the line for a touchdown, from which Drummond kicked an easy goal. Shortly after, time was called. Score, Hobart 0, Hamilton 9.

Colgate, relegated to a minor position on our schedule, still thrills every man of us with hope and expectancy. This afternoon the contest is on at Hamilton. The Varsity has been practicing faithfully and is in the best of trim, Drummond having so far recovered from his injured leg as to take his regular place in the line-up. As for the rest, Coach Pryor has introduced some new plays, on the outcome of which he bases much hope. Tho victory may not be assured, there is every prospect that the final score may show more points in our favor than has been the case in previous years. The team will do its most valiant work to make this possibility an actuality.

It ought to be needless to urge the duty which each and every man can discharge only by attending this game. All 12 o'clock classes will be either excused or postponed so that every one may have an opportunity of leaving Clinton on the 12:40 train. An exhibition of the true Hamilton esprit de corps is an ideal which we can approximate in this way.

WE WERE GLAD to win the Hobart game. It meant much to the team, and to the College. It was encouragement at a time when reassurance was needed. But yet there was a regret. One man was missing, and he was LOYAL LEAVENWORTH, once of the Class of 1910—and it came to us more strongly than ever what his loss signified to the team and to the College. While never a brilliant player, he was always strong and steady—a true Hamilton man, if there ever was one. We are sorry that he is not in College this year, sorry that he is no longer on the field in a blue uniform. All we can do is to wish him the best of fortune wherever he may be.

THIS AFTERNOON WE PLAY Colgate on her Campus. LIFE will refrain from any predictions in regard to the result, optimistic or otherwise. Suffice it to say that the team will fight and fight hard, whether it be for victory or an honorable defeat. To do its best, to put forth every bit of effort and fighting blood there is in it, is all the College expects of the team. The student body will be behind it to a man, in heart, at least, and we trust, in actual presence on the side-lines. LIFE cannot urge too strongly the necessity of the presence of every man at the game. The team needs you—every one. Be there to cheer a Hamilton team on the field, and do not fail to display a blue arm band. No one should be without a megaphone. Every Freshman should know the yells and songs. Perhaps they are small and trivial matters, but they help a lot, and that should be sufficient.

IN ANOTHER COLUMN of this issue, we print a new song by Theodore F. Collier, '94, Professor of History at Williams College, written for the College, and submitted to the undergraduate body for approval. The score is by Mr. Walter Salter, the Williams organist.

We have some excellent songs, but for a good song there is room always. And by a good song we mean, one suited for the work in hand, one with throb and fire, one that stirs a crowd. That, we believe, is fair measure of a Hamilton song.

Copies of the new song have been distributed, and the Musical Club Managers have prepared scores for the several societies. This was done for a purpose, namely, that the song be learned. After that it can be tried in College practice and given a real test.

LIFE speaks approval for the new song and urges the men in College to prompt team work in this matter. It is a courtesy due to Mr. Collier, and the most substantial way of expressing our thanks.

COLLEGE DINNERS ought to be, by this time, a traditional institution on this Hill, and should not need any editorial comment for their regular occurrence. However, since no plans have been made up to this time for one of these college gatherings, a suggestion on the subject may be in place. It is unnecessary to remind the College of the good, wholesome occasions that these dinners are. Every one, who has ever attended one, knows it. A Hamilton College dinner leaves a pleasant taste—it makes one glad that he is spending his college days on the Hill, in a small college, where everyone can get together at least a few times during the year and enjoy the wholesome Hamilton fellowship. And in addition to personal pleasure, there is another side to consider—the inspiration it gives to any team. It will show the football men that the College is behind them—and that is what we need at this time of the year. LIFE would suggest that the Football Management make arrangements to hold a College Dinner in Commons Hall—the sooner the better. That the student body will approve, goes without saying. The point is that we want one and should have it. If the student body agrees, as LIFE is sure that it will, there should be no difficulty.

To the Editor of LIFE:

Not from any desire to rush into print, but because of several talks with the Alumni, I desire space in your columns. Hamilton spirit is a topic which has been much discussed of late, and as the result of many italicized editorials in LIFE a certain kind of spirit has been drummed up for some occasions. But the Hobart game last Saturday was a woeful sequel to the lack of interest and enthusiasm which has marked the football season thus far.

The reason perhaps is not far to seek, for in the memory of the present college generation Hamilton has not had an athletic team which could command any enthusiastic outburst of support. But the prospects this year are for a team which is deserving of all the backing the college can give it, and so far this has not been forthcoming. The material is good, and the coach is equipped with a year's experience here, and all the attendant qualifications for producing a good team.

Now this letter arises from the reports already circulated that members of the squad are not training as they should. Breaking training rules is disgraceful enough at any time and a man who will not respect the demands of his coach is a traitor to his college. More than that need not be said. The reason why such conduct is to be particularly condemned this year is because the members of the team are now in a position to do more than any team in the past years. They have every prospect of success, and unless they do their best to make these hopes come true, they are offending more seriously than any of their predecessors. Hamilton College and its alumni look this year for a winning team. If they do not get one it is because something is wrong with the team itself, and to prevent any such catastrophe, this letter is written. If each man of the squad does his own particular best to help develop the team, then he has done his duty. When such an attitude is manifested, then there will be plenty of support and an expression of the right kind of spirit,—the kind which will condemn all the infractions of the spirit of the training rules, and will give a hearty, spontaneous support to a Hamilton team, win or lose. That is the spirit we want and this year it is up to the players to bring it into active being.

PAUL B. WILLIAMS, '08

A NEW SONG

Fight on! fight on! for the buff and blue,
Ye men of Hamilton!
And hold every inch,
With never a flinch,
Till the victory is won!

Chorus:

Everybody up, and a cheer for the team,
All valiant men and true!
They'll never, never yield,
They'll hold the field,
For Hamilton and the buff and blue!

Drive hard! hold firm! whatever the odds;
And show your fighting stuff!
We'll cheer for the man
Who does what he can
For our grand old blue and buff.

Now one more rush, and straight thru the goal,
And score for Hamilton!
Then a long, strong yell,
Let it roll and swell,
To the victors, hail! well done!

Theodore F. Collier, '94

ADVISORY BOARD MEETS

The special meeting of the Advisory Board was held in Silliman Hall Thursday evening. It was voted to place the surplus of the past basketball and tennis seasons in the general treasury, with the exception of twenty-five dollars, which was granted the management of Intermural Sports for the expenses incurred by that department. A committee, consisting of Knox, Judson and Barber was appointed to revise the constitution and have it reprinted, in order to conform the sections, in regard to the granting of the several Hs. with the new conditions. The tentative track schedule, consisting of Rochester, R. P. I., Trinity, Colgate, St. Lawrence and Union, was accepted. It was also voted that if, after the proceedings in the Rochester protest, the decison was decided against Hamilton, that the Advisory Board should be called together within a week to consider the matter.

The delegate to the N. Y. S. I. A. U. was instructed to vote in favor of granting the management of the Intercollegiate Track Meet to each institution in the league, taken in rotation.

PRO PATRIA

"Pro Patria" is the title of Clinton Scollard's latest work. It is a book of poems, the themes of which are chiefly patriotic. The ballads are written, principally, to commemorate the battles that have been fought on land and sea during the past century—and commemorate them they do, in a manner which is very pleasing. The book is one which would be an addition to any library. The work is attractively printed and bound in blue paper by George W. Browning, and can be procured at his place of business.

FALL TRACK MEET

The Annual Fall Track Meet between the Sophomores and Freshmen will occur next Saturday. As far as can be judged, every indication points to one of the best events of its kind in years. The Sophomores, altho greatly handicapped by the loss of Wenigmann and Brome, will put up a good fight. Capt. Donaldson, as formerly, will be in the pole vault and weights, while Eggleston and Bates will try for the mile run. In the sprints 1912 will have Walker, Peters, Dubois and C. Root. The other distance men are Ahlheim, Watkins and DuBordieu. For the jumps, Adams, Alvord, Bagg and Patteson are entered. In the 1913 team Capt. Myers, Forest and Landon will try for the jumps. For the distance, Blackmar, Pilsen, Shaw and Lyons are the most promising men. Myers, Kultchar and Blackmar will also be in the sprints. Thompson and Trout will throw the weights for the Freshmen. The meet promises to be a very close contest, and should be of interest to every man in College.

PHI BETA KAPPA

The following men from the Class of 1910 have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa:

John Cooke Baldwin,
Arthur Lewis Evans,
Arthur Jackson Mix,
Stephen Charles Ondarcho.

DRILL COMMITTEE MEETS

On Monday evening last, a conference of the upperclassmen drill masters in declamation for the current year, was held in Chi Psi Lodge. The various upperclassmen of each Fraternity were present. The matter of bettering the standard of speaking in Hamilton was thoroly discussed. Committees have been organized in each Fraternity to take charge of the drilling. It is firmly intended that this method, which was hardly more than an idea the preceding year, will become regularly fixed in the College from now on.

No definite organization was made; that matter being left to each committee. The work, however, for the year was planned in general, and minor details of the work were discussed. The attitude of those in the work is most enthusiastic, and with these various committees to fall back on, the College should, in due time, see a very decided improvement in our noon chapels.

There are two games to be played next week—Delta Upsilon vs. Psi Upsilon, and the final game, which will decide the championship.

ANTE-SEASON BASEBALL

There has been some discussion of late as to the advisability of holding Fall baseball practice, weather permitting. It has been suggested that a great deal of valuable time is wasted in the Spring in finding men of Varsity calibre among the Freshmen, and that this might be better done in the Fall. It is proposed to hold practice in the quadrangle, inasmuch as the athletic field would have to be devoted to football practice. No games could be played of course, but the aim of such a movement would be primarily to discover Varsity material in the incoming class. Nothing definite has been done about it as yet, tho various plans are now under discussion.

Along with the idea of Fall practice comes the proposal of a Southern trip during Easter vacation. All these plans are at present in an embryotic state, but the proposal of a Southern trip has much in its favor. The inevitable clash with the Musical Clubs could be arranged, and if a sufficient number of games could be secured it would serve as a valuable ante-season practice, and would at the same time introduce the College where at present it is not even a name. All this is, of course, subject to Faculty approval, and nothing definite can be stated at the present writing. It is expected, however, that some action will be taken on the foregoing proposition in the near future.

—There will be a meeting of the LIFE Board at 3:45 tomorrow afternoon in No. 3 South. Please be prompt.

—All the candidates for the LIFE Board will meet with the local editor in No. 4 South at 1:30 Monday afternoon. This meeting is important, and all candidates should report there promptly.
